According to NTV Poll it appears that residents are split on the timing of the government to change electoral boundaries.

~

Residents were more than surprised recently when they turned on the radio and heard that a seal was making its way up Hardy Avenue.

Passing

Mrs. Gladys Osmond passed away last week. I knew Gladys for many years. I got to know her and her husband, Harry, when she was Town-Clerk of Peterview and Harry ran a Taxi Service and delivered its bulk mail from Botwood to Peterview.

After Harry's passing, Gladys returned to the Salvation Army, working for many years with the homeless in Toronto. Gladys is widely known for writing thousands of letters to our Arm Forces personnel. We kept in touch over the years; in fact, when she received her Honorary Doctors Degree from Memorial University she gave me a picture of the event. She will be missed.
